Mission: to prepare individuals with and without developmental disabilities for life success within their communities and families.

Crossroads is a registered 501c3 organization, making fundraising through events, grants and donations critical to fulfilling our mission. Your participation will help us to meet our fund development goals and impact directly on our services to the children.

Crossroads Center for Children:

- Is a nonprofit organization located in Princetown.
- Operates both a school and an ABA Clinic, specializing in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) therapy.
- Serves students from up to 10 surrounding counties and 30 school districts across the Capital Region.
- Founded in 1998 to meet the needs of the growing number of children diagnosed with autism.
- Today, the majority of students have an autism diagnosis, but Crossroads also serves:
  - Children with other special needs
  - Children in general education through integrated preschool and nursery school classrooms
